

Many Much A lot of

much	+ uncountable nouns	I don't eat much sugar.
many	+ plural nouns	I don't eat many sweets.
A lot of	+ plural nouns/uncountable nouns	They sell a lot of vegetables. They have a lot of money.

Обикновено much and many се използват в отрицателни и въпросителни изречения.
Използваме a lot of в положителни изречения.

Преведете

Ана има много приятели.
Има ли много ученици от Япония?
Има много портокали в чантата.
Няма много сирене в хладилника.
Гледаш ли много телевизия?

How much.....? How many.....?

Използваме how much с неброими съществителни имена

How much sugar do I need?

Използваме how much когато питаме за цени

How much is it? It's fifteen euros.

How much does it cost? It costs ten pounds.

Използваме How many с броими съществителни имена

How many bedrooms are there in the house?

How much или How many?

How much / many rice do you need?

How much / many apples do you have?

How much / many salt is there?

How much / many water is there?

How much / many eggs are there in the dish?

How many / much different types of rice are there?

Напишете въпросителни изречения

.....? I have 2 kg of rice.

..... ? I have a lot of milk.

.....? There are six eggs.

.....? I need one onion.

.....? There is about a kilo of pasta.

Отговори

Преведете

Ana has a lot of friends.

Are there many students from Japan?

There are a lot of oranges in the bag.

There isn't much cheese in the fridge.

Do you watch much television?

How much или How many?

much

many

much

much

many

many

Напишете въпросителни изречения

How much rice do you have?

How much milk do you have?

How many eggs are there?

How many onions do you need?

How much pasta is there?

